

135

Death of BAR KOCHBAH

135-136 (Summer of 135 → 136)

Antiochus Pius served as governor of the province of Asia in Western Asia Minor.

Had no knowledge of military affairs

135AD

2nd Jewish Revolt

500,000 Jews died

c135 A.D.

Goths

According to Ptolemy (the author Geography)
the Goths lived northwest of present-day Warsaw on the eastern, SARMATIAN bank of the VISTULA R.

This is the region from which they advanced to the Black Sea

Claudius Ptolemaeus (127 - 141)<sup>flourished</sup>

C135

1912 Dates J-BK

Palmyra was almost destroyed in the wars with TRAJAN, but was rebuilt by HADRIAN
and called HADRIANOPOLIS

135

~~Jeru Hest~~

Ery Israel

Fall of BETNAR

Aelia Capitolina established

AKIVA was executed

135-138

Jews' Hist

In Erez Israel, Hadrian persecuted the Jews.

135

---

Jewish Revolt was suppressed

135AD

Battle of CAESAREA (Jewish Wars of Roman Empire)
During reign of HADRIAN, Judea again revolted against Roman rule and institutions. The immediate cause was Emperor Hadrian's order to rebuild Jerusalem as a Greco-Roman city. Led by SIMON BAR COCHABA (BAR KOKHBA) the Jews began a systematic expulsion of all Roman forces from Judea in 132 AD. The tide turned when the veteran Roman general SEXTUS JULIUS SEVERUS arrived to take charge of the legions. In a hard-fought campaign he ruthlessly

Crushed the revolt by destroying 50 Jewish strong points and hundreds of villages.

The Roman reconquest was complete in 135 when SEVERUS captured the seaport of CAESAREA (QIS ARYA), 55 miles northwest of Jerusalem.

BAR COCHBA was killed. Tens of thousands of Jewish combatants perished during the savage three-year struggle.

138/
139

---

Telephones died in the 11th yr of his ministry and HYG, NUS took over as Bishop of Rome

AD 135

---

Hadrian banished all Jews from Jerusalem.

That meant the end of bishops of the Circumcision.

135 AD

After the Jewish revolt for the second time and are put down with blood (132-135)
Emperor Hadrian rebuilds
Jerusalem as a Roman Colony.

AELIA CAPITOLINA: on the temple area a statue of Jupiter is erected. Entrance to the city is prohibited to all Jews under penalty of death.

the ancient name of Judea is changed to that of Palestine Syria.

135 AD

Revolt of the Bar Kokhba, a supposed messiah. It was defeated with awful slaughter; the last effort to restore the Jewish state.

135 AD

Hadrian nominated his wattleless favorite ~~VERUS~~
as his successor. VERUS

SIMON BAR KOKHBA was killed and Jerusalem was renamed AELIA CAPITOLINA. It became a Roman colony from which Jews were excluded (except for ritual slaughtering once per year) and temples of Jupiter and Hadrian were constructed on the Temple grounds.

135 AD

Epictetus died